Subject: [grendelreport] DAY OF RAGE PLANNED FOR D.C., STATE CAPITOLS and WALL STREET SEPT 17, 2011

We have finally arrived at the junction point between anarchy and freedom in this country. Images of the uncontrolled, planned, riots in Greece and the U.K. will be replicated right here in state capitals and D.C. beginning on September 17th, only four weeks away. Go to the blue links in the article below to get a deeper insight into the planning for these coordinated events. Call your police departments to see just what preparations they're making to protect the innocent citizens and businesses that will be targeted for destruction. Are they even being made aware of these terror plots? We are routinely warned many weeks in advance of threatening hurricanes that usually never reach us. These riots are so well planned that no bookie would dare take a bet that they would not occur. Where are the official warnings?

Will the "homeless, hungry and desperate participants" crash in the windows of the appliance, footwear and video stores in order to supply their starving families with big screen TV's, Nike's and the latest rap recordings? What is the involvement of former Nazi, George Soros, in these events? What members of SEIU, ACORN and the teachers' unions will be leading the charge to take control of this nation from the "millionaires and billionaires" who have been constantly vilified by the radical Left? What members of congress and the White House will sit smugly by and view their trained zombies spreading terror over our land? Will this week's golfing vacation by BHO be cut short to focus on this stated Threat?
We'll get our answers in just about one month.

"Semper Paratus!" Be Prepared!

DAY OF RAGE PLANNED FOR D.C., STATE CAPITOLS and WALL STREET SEPT 17, 2011

This information came out of Idaho, but this is being staged across the entire 50 states! We need to be aware and let others know, especially those that live in the capitols, or have businesses there. If you've seen the riots taking place in Greece, or those in the Middle East, you see a sample of what it looks like they are planning. Let's hope that either few show up, that they stay peaceful, or that the law enforcement agencies are able to thwart it before it occurs....

Day of rage

Day Of Rage:

September 17th, 2011 is set to be a Day of Rage. The leftists call this a non-violent event, yet their website, Craigslist ads and Facebook postings include information on how to resist arrest, protest in jail and fight the legal system. The anarchists, Marxists and communists have put together a plan, from start to finish, to takeover America. There will be trouble. The only real question, at this point, is what are the Department of Homeland Security, the FBI, the NSA and others going to do to stop this? So far, no one in the media is talking about this insurrection, aside from Glenn Beck who told of it months ago. What will you and your family do to do be safe and save our way of life? It is obvious that the commander in chief has no intention of stopping this coming event, these are, after all, his political base.

The purveyors of the Day of Rage have done their best to make their cause sound as if it is Libertarian or Conservative, but as one reads through the material, it becomes apparent that they are masking their origins and intent. Corporations are blamed for much of the ills, including the suppression of "free and fair elections". Hiding under the guise of 'one person/one vote' and campaign finance reform, fitting the ideology of B. Hussein Obama, as stated in his chastising of the Supreme Court during his State of the Union Address, they seek to implement social justice and a democracy, undermining the republic and electoral college process, turning elections into a popularity contest.

The Anti-American organizers of this even, seek to have protests in all fifty state capitols, the nations capitol and to crush the capitalist economy by disrupting Wall Street. Despite repeatedly stating their goal is non-violence, this subversive organization lists the following among their plans:

- * They call for civil disobedience and include plans on how to disrupt court, arrest and the jail system.

- * Civil disobedience training is available.

- * Directions on responding with resistance to being restrained.

- * Classes on forming Affinity Groups and collectively resisting law enforcement.

- * Step by step processes for reducing infiltration by law enforcement and what to do after arrest (if you're peaceful, why plans on after arrest?).
- * Directions on getting arrested, disrupting court, jail, booking and going on hunger/water strikes (Choosing to kill yourselves saves taxpayers money and it is encouraged).
- * A legal process flow chart is included, as well as how to make more trouble in court (Always a good move, judges like that).
- * Jail solidarity is addressed, which is unusual for a non-violent demonstration (You will become a jail bride).
- * How to record audio and video covertly, during acts of civil disobedience (This stinks of a set up, to antagonize law enforcement into acting).
- * Online civil disobedience is covered. Law abiding people call this hacking, sabotage, and illegal, in most cases.

This “non-violent” Day of Rage, which sounds like a national temper tantrum for spoiled children, also includes a call to arms. To be clear, a “call to arms” is issued prior to or during a violent event. Interesting that no one in the media or law enforcement has addressed this, or taken the time to warn Americans about the lefts' call to arms. Monitoring the Twitter account of this group makes it clear that the anarchists, Marxists and collectivists have taken over and the intent of this group is much more than the “non-violence” they preach in between their “call to arms”.

The violent, non-violent revolutionaries have an interesting list of partners, sponsors and groups they identify with. The European Revolution is one such group. They have had a lot of non-violent protests that resulted in large scale riots and destruction of property. Take The Square is part of this revolutionary event and they support/endorse the riots in Greece that have been taking place. The group Occupy Wall Street is also part of this conglomeration of anarchists seeking to unite (which defeats the purpose...kind of like asking the clerk at the book store where the “Self Help” section is) on September 17, 2011. Even the Pro-Islamic leftists are represented, by WL Central (Wikileaks Central) and their irrational demands. The anarchists at the “non-violent” Day of Rage support two other anarchist groups, whom they openly admire, IRC AnonOps and Lulzsecurity.

Glenn Beck warned the nation of the coming leftist, Islamic storm. Like a dust cloud in the distance, it is almost upon us. Our government, our security agencies and the media have ignored the coming storm, making them part of the problem, not the solution. Given the Marxist leanings of the media, combined with our blatantly communist President, B. Hussein Obama, if that is his real name, and the shadow government of czars he has set up, a revolutionary storm, striking America, at approximately the same time America sees a credit downgrade and a pending food crisis (The government and media remain silent on the fires, lack of rain and flooding that has diminished our nations food supplies), it is the perfect time for disruption and Martial Law.

For a President behind in the polls and failing at implementing “fundamental change” in America, this would enable his official oligarchy to begin. It has always been a question of “when” not “if”. We now know when.

The only remaining question is: What will you do? Are you prepared to protect and defend your family? Can you defend your property? Will you have food and water, or have you not prepared? Do you have the gravitas to support local law enforcement when they come under attack trying to contain these violent, non-violent protests? Are you prepared for Martial Law? Do you have your survival networks established? Safe houses? Do you possess the constitution, the depth of face to go as far as is needed to preserve the Republic? If not, are you prepared to tell your children and grandchildren that you were unprepared or a coward and that is why they now live in a crumbling, third world country that is a utopia for only the elite and the rich? America, your time is now.

Stand Up & Stand Strong!

“If you will not fight for right when you can easily win without bloodshed; if you will not fight when your victory is sure and not too costly; you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than to live as slaves.” —Sir Winston Churchill (1874-1965) was set up, with a ferry ride across the Hudson River from West 34th Street to Elizabeth, N.J.

Brannon likened the effort to the long-distance marches led by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. during the civil rights era.

"I mean, I'm not comparing us to Martin Luther King," said Brannon, of Queens, referring to three marches King led in 1965 from Selma, Ala., to the state Capitol in Montgomery. Those marches ranged in size from 600 to 8,000 people.

"That's the premise Occupy is taking to the road: the historic relevance of such long-distance marches for social causes," Brannon said.

They'll overnight by camping or at volunteered accommodations, she said.

They are to join Occupy D.C. protesters in McPherson Square the evening of Nov. 22, then walk to the Capitol and the White House the next day.

The Joint Select Committee on Deficit Reduction must decide by Nov. 23 to cut $1.2 trillion from the deficit; the tax issue is only one bitter bone of contention among politicians. But it's the top issue for the Occupy activists heading to Washington.

New York's multibillionaire mayor, Michael Bloomberg, whom many protesters consider their adversary as one of America's wealthiest "1 percent," has also called for ending the tax cuts.

"Interesting — but I'm not a Bloomberg supporter," said the 27-year-old Brannon. "I'm not really impressed with what he's doing, though we agree on this one little thing."

The march is being funded with an initial $3,000 approved at Occupy Wall Street's "general assembly" — a daily gathering of protesters to make decisions. The money comes from donations of at least a half-million dollars sent to the New York movement by supporters.

The marchers expect to get more support of both money and supplies along the way — an average of about 20 miles a day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., walking on highway shoulders, where it's allowed, or on local roads.

They'll hold nightly discussions — along the lines of their general assemblies, at 7 p.m. wherever they are, as they pass through cities with an Occupy presence, such as Philadelphia and Baltimore, as well as towns and rural communities not yet involved.

WFO PI has received information that the Occupy DC group has a significant Planned action for this Thursday, 11/17. At 1445 hrs., 11/17, the group is allegedly planning to drive a bus full of people onto the Key bridge, disable the bus and exit onto the bridge in an effort to completely shut down the bridge.

Please keep this information in mind while conducting protective advances.

Please do not share this information outside the USSS.

No further information is known, at this time.

Thank you.

All,

Reference is made to my previous email regarding possible protests today with intent to cause major traffic disruptions in Washington DC, particularly in the area of the Key Bridge. An additional alert was received this morning reiterating local law enforcement's concern over anticipated traffic disruptions planned to start around 1430 and last through the evening rush hour. Although the intel we have received thus far indicates the target area to be McPherson Square and the Key Bridge; all personnel should be mindful of the potential for smaller pop-up protests/actions which could affect any of our protected sites or protectee motorcades.

Please read the below information received by ATSAIC (b)(6) from our partners in DC Government, which addresses concerns over the aforementioned planned action, as well as some other construction based closures.

WFO PI has no additional information at this time.

Thank you.

TRAFFIC ALERT

Potential Traffic Delays around the Key Bridge and McPherson Square

(Washington, DC) - The District Department of Transportation (DDOT) and the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) would like to advise the public about the possibility of traffic delays during the evening rush hour tomorrow.

Occupy DC has announced that on Thursday, November 17, 2011, between the hours of 2:30 PM and continuing through the evening rush hour, they plan to conduct a demonstration/march between the Key Bridge and McPherson Square.

Because any demonstration within Washington, DC always presents the possibility of causing traffic delays, the Department of Transportation and the Metropolitan Police Department urge motorists to be aware of the possibility of heavy pedestrian and motor vehicle traffic between the Key Bridge, McPherson Square, and surrounding areas. We further encourage motorists to avoid the areas described and use alternate methods of transportation if possible. Additionally, motorists and pedestrians traveling in these areas should use extreme caution.

Subject: FYI - Planned Occupy DC march to Key Bridge 11/17

FYI

Thursday, 11/17, Occupy DC plans to march from McPherson Square to Key Bridge between 2:30-6:00 p.m.

(b)(7)(E)

Protective Intelligence

Incident # 4.366.12
Regional Intelligence: DC

"Occupy DC Plans to March on Key Bridge Tomorrow

UPDATE (12:10 p.m.): Via Twitter, Occupy DC's media team states that their march will not conflict with the afternoon rush, despite it being scheduled to last until 6 p.m. Meanwhile, a group called Our DC which is participating in a demonstration on the bridge itself says that protesters will be "staying on the pedestrian sidewalk" and that there will be "No blocking traffic!"

Tomorrow, Occupy DC protesters are scheduled to march to and protest at the Key Bridge, which will likely cause several disruptions to many an afternoon commute.

According to the Occupy DC website's schedule, the demonstration will participate in a "Labor-Community-Occupy Day of Action and March on the Key Bridge in Georgetown" in order to "protest of the deterioration of our public infrastructure and public services."

On November 17th, we will be marching From McPherson Square to the Key Bridge in solidarity with OurDC, and other labor organizations. We will call on Congress to create jobs, stop cuts, and make Wall Street banks pay. The gap between the 1% and the 99% continues to grow. But instead of creating jobs, Congress continues to ignore the concerns of the 99%, and focuses on job-killing budget cuts and tax giveaways for the rich. In Washington, the structurally deficient Key Bridge is a vivid example of the many roads, schools and other infrastructure sites in need of repair.

The march, which will begin at McPherson Square, is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. and last until 6.

It's not entirely clear at this point if the demonstration is slated to actually take place on the bridge itself – the Post's Tim Craig notes that one press release said that there would be a human chain formed along the bridge span, and others also suggest a gathering on the bridge; meanwhile, one Facebook invitation is instructing people to gather in Francis S. Key Park near the bridge. (We've inquired with the Occupy DC media team for further details on the precise nature of the plans, but have not yet heard back.)

Regardless, we would expect there to be quite a traffic mess tomorrow afternoon around Georgetown and Rosslyn while the demonstration is taking place. Given the Occupy movement's history with demonstrations on bridges, the protest may also serve as the greatest test to date of Occupy DC's generally cordial relationship with law enforcement."

Please be aware of the events planned for today by OccupyDC. No doubt this will create a significant amount of havoc this evening. Your clients and staff may wish to adjust their plans accordingly.

➤ Occupy DC and Occupy NoVA:

We received information that Occupy DC will march from McPherson Square to the Key Bridge between 2pm-6pm on Thursday, November 17, 2011. There may be potential splitter groups to hit banks and banking associations along the way. Another group, Occupy NoVA will march from Ballston (Welburn Square) around 3:30 pm to the Key Bridge. The marching route — which would take demonstrators through the heart of Clarendon, Courthouse and Rosslyn — includes parts of Wilson Boulevard, Clarendon Boulevard and N. Lynn Street. It's not clear if protesters will be marching on the sidewalk or in the street or if banking will be hit as in DC.

These groups will join together on the Key Bridge right around afternoon rush hour.

In case you are not aware of Today's Occupy Wall Street (OWS) Movement – their flyer for today is in the first link below.....

<http://occupywallst.org/article/poster-n17-mass-direct-action-print-and-post-free/>

Then to understand the relevance of N17 from history, see the below link. There are things happening that have every appearance of setting up to have a direct affect on the political conventions next year. We have much to prepare for, and the first step is to be aware and acknowledge the realities of things we have never had to seriously consider.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revolutionary_Organization_17_November

When you take this information and add it to the assassination attempt of the Saudi Ambassador here in the US, the recent shots fired into the White House, the similar movements all over the nation and globe, the economic pressures all over the globe, and listen to the OWS rhetoric, it seems only logical that escalation will continue with push back now coming from officials and so many different interest groups pushing the 'movement' forward with a lot of resources.

The JOC has received information from MPD SOD that the Occupy DC protests scheduled to march to the Key bridge at approximately 1430 hours is going to cause major traffic disruptions in that area. According to MPD, multiple groups of protestors plan to converge on the Key bridge area from a number of different directions including the Virginia side of the bridge. Motorists should avoid the Georgetown area including Whitehurst freeway, M street, canal road, Fox hall road and Wisconsin Ave. NW.

The JOC will provide additional updates as information is received from the MPD SOCC.

As you may know, Brookfield owns New York's Central Park and recently authorized NYPD to remove Occupy protestors. Needless to say, the protestors are a bit unhappy with Brookfield. Yesterday, WDC Occupy protestors spent 10 minutes outside the Brookfield WDC Corporate Office located at 750 9th St. NW. There were no arrests/incidents and Brookfield is not aware at this time if the Protestors plan to move to Brookfield 'owned' properties in WDC

Folks,

(b)(6),(b)(7)(C),(b)(7)(E) As you may know, Brookfield owns New York's Central Park and recently authorized NYPD to remove Occupy protestors. Needless to say, the protestors are a bit unhappy with Brookfield. Yesterday, WDC Occupy protestors spent 10 minutes outside the Brookfield WDC Corporate Office located at 750 9th St. NW. There were no arrests/incidents and Brookfield is not aware at this time if the Protestors plan to move to Brookfield 'owned' properties in WDC (b)(6),(b)(7)(C),(b)(7)(E)

As always, your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Do you think we should associate this demo with the Occupy movement? The article in the below link describes protesters heckling POTUS during the speech, although that isn't in the PIOC report.

Details:

On 11/22/2011, at approximately 1200 hours EST, SA (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) USSS/PID Adv Manchester, NH, tel # (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) contacted the PIOC to report the following demonstration:

Moments earlier, approximately 60 members of an unknown group began a demonstration across the street from a POTUS site, Manchester High School, 1 Crusader Way., Manchester, NH.

The group had signs but no sound equipment. The signs read, "Obama isn't working." and "A vote for Obama is a vote for Goldman Sachs." There was no known media attention and no civil disobedience. No known permit was issued.

SA (b)(6),(b)(7) advised there was a male demonstrator in the crowd that was carrying a holstered weapon in plain view. According to New Hampshire law, they have an open carry policy where a permit is only required to carry a concealed weapon.

The demonstration terminated at 1340 hours EST without incident or arrest.

No protectee movements were affected.

This report will be forwarded to Region 1 for appropriate action.

'OWS' protest for Bam

WASHINGTON They've occupied Wall Street, and now they're getting in President Obama's face by slipping an anti-bank note into his hands.

At a Manchester, NH, high school where Obama was speaking yesterday, a man in the audience handed the president a note that sounded some of the themes of the OWS protesters.

"Mr. President: Over 4000 peaceful protesters have been arrested," read the small, printed note, which added that "banksters continue to destroy the economy." It then chides Obama: "Your silence sends a message," concluding, "Banks got bailed out. We got sold out."

AP

BAM! President Obama reads a note handed to him by a crowd member at his Manchester, NH, appearance yesterday.

A group of at least 10 protesters heckled Obama by chanting similar language, as Obama was trying to pitch his plan to extend an expiring payroll tax cut in a state critical to his re-election plans.

At first, Obama cocked his head back and listened. Then, Obama supporters in the crowd tried to drown out the protesters by chanting 2008 slogan, "Fired up, ready to go." Then they switched to a louder chant of "O-ba-ma."

At that point, Obama jumped in. "I'm going to be talking about a whole range of things today, and I appreciate you guys making your point."

"Let me go ahead and make mine. I'll listen to you, you listen to me."

Obama will also likely do some listening to Wall Street tycoons next week. He travels to New York Wednesday for "campaign events," his campaign announced.

Even as he took flak from the left during his speech, Republican Mitt Romney launched a new ad in the state that slammed Obama for bringing on a "record national debt" and foreclosure crisis.

The ad quotes Obama saying, "If we keep talking about the economy, we're going to lose" — although Obama was actually quoting an aide to GOP rival John McCain when he made the statement during the 2008 campaign.

White House press secretary Jay Carney ripped the ad for "blatant dishonesty" and said it was an "unfortunate way" to start the campaign.

Democratic National Committee spokesman Brad Woodhouse called Romney a "serial deceiver" — and his deceptions know no bounds.

4. Demonstration activity:

Demonstration permits are not required in New York City unless voice amplification is used and/or a march is conducted. In the event a demonstration does take place, site dedicated PI teams will monitor the activity and report the details accordingly.

NYPD advises that "Occupy Wall Street" plans to protest outside the Sheraton Hotel from 1730 hours to 2300 hours on 11/30/11. The group is protesting against the corrupting influence of money on our politics.

Occupy Wall Street is a collection of various groups protesting the current state of the US economy. Since 9/17/11, protesters have remained in downtown Manhattan's Zuccotti Park as part of the "Occupy Wall Street" demonstrations. Their message is unclear, but they seek change in the government's practices towards the economy. There were several arrests for civil disobedience and several government officials and celebrities have visited the site. During FPOTUS George W. Bush's visit to NYC on 11/02/11, protestors from the Occupy Wall Street movement demonstrated in front of his site without incident. This group did not protest at any sites during the 11/15/11 to 11/16/11 visit of Vice President Biden to New York City.

The U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of New York, Southern District of New York and the New York Police Department, have been briefed on the USSS heckler and demonstration policies. It has been explained that in the absence of knowledge of specific facts or observable actions, which would indicate that a demonstration group or individuals participating in a demonstration pose a security threat to a protectee, such demonstrators are to be treated as members of the general public. The officials briefed on these policies are as follows:

(self.occupywallstreet)

"The weekend of Dec 2nd is "Honors Weekend" at the Kennedy Center [in DC]. A large number of celebrities will be there for the rehearsals before the filming of the awards ceremony on Sunday.

In addition to the celebrities, many of the 1% will be in the audience. (Check the list of Kennedy Center trustees and board members.)

Research will be needed to find out what part of the grounds and building can be Occupied. The Kennedy Center was part of the Park Service but they have had some changes so it's not clear to me if the building and grounds are still NPS, but it is a presidential memorial/federal property, surrounded by public roads and sidewalks. It's open to the public every day from 10am to midnight."

'Tis the season for "Winter Galas" and fundraiser/holiday parties. I heard there is already a Lincoln Center protest happening, but think about all the big art centers with wealthy patrons on their boards, and big celebs in attendance.
